

Nonesuch: Our Bristol connection

The Flower

The Nonesuch Flower
[Lychnis chalcedonia]

Also known as the 'Flower of Bristol' or 'Flower of Bristow', the Nonesuch was so named because of the vibrancy of its colour. It was first imported to these shores, through Bristol, in the 16th century, and it remains the city's floral emblem to this day.

Our Community

Nonesuch Cup not only serves great coffee and delicious food, but also supports the local community.

ALL of our profits go towards supporting patient care at Bristol's only adult hospice, St Peter's Hospice.

So, go on, treat yourself to that extra slice of 'guilt free' cake...
